

13A.335 Reasons regulation found deficient shall not be considered deficient.

- (1) An administrative regulation found deficient by a subcommittee shall not be considered deficient if:
 - (a) A subsequent amendment of that administrative regulation is filed with the Commission by the administrative body;
 - (b) The subcommittee that found the administrative regulation deficient approves a motion that the subsequent amendment corrects the deficiency; and
 - (c) Any subcommittee that reviews the administrative regulation under the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A finds that the administrative regulation is not deficient.
- (2) An administrative regulation found deficient by the Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee shall not be considered deficient if:
 - (a) The administrative regulation is amended to correct the deficiency at a meeting of the subcommittee to which it was assigned by the Commission;
 - (b) That subcommittee does not determine that the administrative regulation is deficient for any other reason; and
 - (c) The Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee approves a motion that the deficiency has been corrected and that the administrative regulation should not be considered deficient.
- (3) An administrative regulation found deficient by a subcommittee shall not be considered deficient if the subcommittee:
 - (a) Reconsiders the administrative regulation and its finding of deficiency; and
 - (b) Approves a motion that the administrative regulation is not deficient.
- (4) (a) If an existing administrative regulation has been amended and found deficient by a subcommittee, it shall not be considered deficient if the:
 1. Administrative regulation was found deficient due to the amendment;
 2. Promulgating administrative body has withdrawn the proposed amendment of the existing administrative regulation; and
 3. Regulations compiler has not received the Governor's determination pursuant to KRS 13A.330 or 13A.331.
- (b) If an administrative regulation has been found deficient by a subcommittee, the regulations compiler shall add the following notice to the administrative regulation: "This administrative regulation was found deficient by the [name of subcommittee] on [date]." This notice shall be the last section of the administrative regulation.
- (c) If an administrative regulation has been found deficient by a subcommittee, subsequent amendments of that administrative regulation filed with the Commission shall contain the notice provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection.
- (d) If an administrative regulation that has been found deficient by a subcommittee has subsequently been determined not to be deficient under the provisions of this section, the regulations compiler shall delete the notice required by paragraph (b) of this subsection.
