

227.390 Officer may remedy fire hazard if owner fails to do so -- Expense.

If any owner fails to comply with an order issued pursuant to KRS 227.380 or with an order as modified on appeal to the commissioner, the officer may cause the property to be repaired, or removed if repair is not feasible, and all fire hazard conditions remedied, at the expense of the owner. Such expense may be enforced against any property of such owners and the officer and those employed to do the work or who furnish materials or equipment therefor shall have a lien for such expense on the real estate or property involved.

Effective: July 15, 2010

History: Amended 2010 Ky. Acts ch. 24, sec. 401, effective July 15, 2010. -- Created 1954 Ky. Acts ch. 201, sec. 20.