

247.420 Duties and powers of council.

The duties and functions of the council shall be to:

- (1) Counsel with the Commissioner of Agriculture on matters pertaining to agricultural and agri-business development and the marketing and distribution of agricultural products.
- (2) Promote, to the fullest extent, coordination and cooperation among public and private agencies and organizations so that each may make the maximum contribution toward the attainment of a greater and improved agricultural economy.
- (3) Make investigations, undertake such studies, and prepare such reports and recommendations regarding the elimination or alleviation of specific problems affecting farm gross and net income, the improvement of all phases of agriculture, and any other matters necessary and incidental to the stimulation of the development of a statewide agricultural program for acceleration of farm income.
- (4) Promote the production and marketing of Kentucky farm products and services, on local, state, national and international levels, through research, education, and other promotional activities.
- (5) Contract from time to time as appropriate with experts and consultants who may be utilized as deemed necessary and make other necessary purchases.
- (6) Hold public and private hearings for the purpose of furthering the objectives of the council's programs.
