

424.280 Due date of ad valorem taxes.

Every officer whose duty it is to collect any ad valorem tax for the state or for any political subdivision of the state shall cause notice of the due date of the tax to be advertised by newspaper publication, and shall not be given a quietus for the taxes collected unless he submits proof of such publication.

History: Created 1958 Ky. Acts ch. 42, sec. 18.