

426.150 Defendant may select property to be sold -- May surrender property not levied on.

The defendant may, on the day of the sale, in writing, direct the property levied on to be sold in any succession he desires. He may produce other property or the title to land in the county not levied on and, by writing, direct the same to be sold first, and in that case the residue of the execution and costs, if any, shall be made out of the property levied on.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 1694.