

42.710 Agency or instrumentality of state authorized to display historic religious and nonreligious artifacts, monuments, symbols, and texts in public buildings and on public property owned by the Commonwealth.

Any agency or instrumentality of state government may display historic artifacts, monuments, symbols, and texts, including but not limited to religious materials, in public buildings and public property owned by the Commonwealth if the display is consistent with the requirements of KRS 42.705.

Effective: March 24, 2006

History: Created 2006 Ky. Acts ch. 34, sec. 2, effective March 24, 2006.