

70.370 Precedence of levying and satisfying writs.

Executions, fee-bills, orders of witnesses' attendance, distress warrants and attachments, shall be levied and satisfied by the constable according to the priority of time in which they are placed in his hands. The constable shall, in every case, indorse the time of reception.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 442.