

311.956 Prescription and administration by physician.

A physician may prescribe or administer amygdalin (laetrile) in lieu of or in addition to customary or accepted modes of therapy in the treatment of any malignancy, disease, illness or physical condition of a patient who has signed a written informed request and who has been determined by the physician to be terminally ill.

Effective: July 15, 1980

History: Created 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 354, sec. 4, effective July 15, 1980.