

336.164 Duties of council -- Staff support.

- (1) The council shall function as an advisory agent of state government and provide leadership and assistance for labor and management in this state, and shall serve to effect improved labor-management relations within the state, and to thereby attract and encourage new and existing industry in this state.
- (2) The council shall not infringe upon or assume the responsibilities, duties or functions of the Labor Cabinet or Cabinet for Economic Development. The council may make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature on matters relating to labor-management problems in this state and any other matter it deems necessary.
- (3) Meetings of the council may be held at any location in this state; however the principal office of the council will be located in Frankfort, Kentucky.
- (4) The secretary of the Labor Cabinet shall supply necessary staff and supplies to the council as well as funds for reimbursing each member for reasonable and necessary expenses incurred as a result of attending council meetings, and he or she shall act as the executive secretary of the council. The director of the Division of Employment Standards, Apprenticeship and Mediation shall be responsible for the coordination of such staff and supplies.
