

346.100 Failure to perfect claim -- Denial.

Following the initial filing of a claim, if a claimant or victim does not take such further steps as may be necessary to support or perfect the claim as may be required by the board within thirty (30) days after such requirement is made by the board, the claimant or victim shall be deemed in default. In such case the board shall summarily deny the claim and the claimant or victim shall be forever barred from reasserting the claim. The board may remit such proceedings on good cause shown that the failure to take the steps required by the board was totally and completely beyond the control of the claimant or victim.
