

194A.719 In-service education for staff and management.

- (1) Assisted-living community staff and management shall receive orientation education on the following topics as applicable to the employee's assigned duties:
 - (a) Client rights;
 - (b) Community policies;
 - (c) Adult first aid;
 - (d) Cardiopulmonary resuscitation unless the policies of the assisted-living community state that this procedure is not initiated by its staff, and that clients and prospective clients are informed of the policies;
 - (e) Adult abuse and neglect;
 - (f) Alzheimer's disease and other types of dementia;
 - (g) Emergency procedures;
 - (h) Aging process;
 - (i) Assistance with activities of daily living and instrumental activities of daily living;
 - (j) Particular needs or conditions if the assisted-living community markets itself as providing special programming, staffing, or training on behalf of clients with particular needs or conditions; and
 - (k) Assistance with self-administration of medication.
- (2) Assisted-living community staff and management shall receive annual in-service education applicable to their assigned duties that addresses no fewer than four (4) of the topics listed in subsection (1) of this section.

Effective: July 15, 2010

History: Amended 2010 Ky. Acts ch. 36, sec. 10, effective July 15, 2010. -- Created 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 141, sec. 10, effective July 14, 2000.