(p) In the event that functions are scheduled on the grounds of the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center at locations with respect to which no areas for distributions and demonstrations have been above designated, the executive director shall designate such additional areas for such activities as he may deem appropriate.

(q) One (1) table may be set up at all areas, other than Areas E and F, in order to aid distribution activities.

(r) Placards shall be permitted at all areas other than Areas E and F.

(s) Areas E and F shall be unavailable when control gates for admission charges and/or registration for an event are set up at the main entrance to the Coliseum.

(2) Any person or group who wishes to conduct any of the above activities at the locations specified shall apply to the Executive Director of the Kentucky fair and Exposition Center on forms provided by him for this purpose. Application shall be made not less than seventy-two (71) hours nor more than two (2) weeks before commencement of the activities. The application shall set forth the type of activities to be conducted, the expected number of participants in such activities, the time, location and duration of the activities, and the name, address and telephone number of the person making the application in the case of a group it shall be sufficient to supply the name, address and telephone number of one (1) person who can be contacted if problems arise concerning the grant of the application.

(a) A deposit of twenty-five (25) dollars cash or money order shall be submitted with the application, and shall be returned to the applicant within twenty-four (24) hours after the termination of the activities if there has been no extra cleanup time required by the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center staff as a result of the litter created by the aforesaid activities.

(b) The executive director shall grant each application to engage in the activities permitted hereunder, unless he and the President of the Kentucky State Fair Board determine that the proposed number of participants contained in and application will unreasonable and substantially interfere with either:

1. The safety of patrons attending the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center;
2. The orderly movement of vehicle and pedestrian traffic on the grounds of the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center; or
3. The normal functions of the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center.

4. In the event that the executive director and the president of the Kentucky State Fair Board find that the proposed number of participants will create such unreasonable and substantial interference, the executive director, after consultation with the President of the Kentucky State Fair Board, shall grant the application subject to a reduced number of participants in the proposed activities, and shall notify the applicant in writing of the grounds for reducing the number of participants. In the event of multiple applications for any given times and locations, the executive director shall have discretion to:

- a. Allocate such locations, on a proportional basis, among the various applicants;
- b. Allocate times, on a proportional basis, during which the various applicants may conduct their activities; or
- c. Allocate any given period of time or location, on a proportional basis, among the various applicants;
- d. In exercising such discretion, the executive director shall try, to the maximum extent possible, to accommodate the location and time requests of all applicants.

(c) The grant of the application by the executive director shall be in the form of a permit which shall set forth the number of persons covered by the permit, the activities which are permitted, the permitted time and duration of those activities, and the location at which the activities may be conducted.

(d) The duration of each permit issued shall not be in excess of two (2) days. Any person or group may renew a permit for successive two (2) day periods. Renewal applications shall be made on the same form as new applications and shall be processed as if they were new applications.

(3) No signs, leaflets, placards or other material shall be affixed to the building facilities. no leaflets or other material shall be distributed by leaving them unattended throughout the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center.

(4) No voice amplification equipment of any kind shall be used by any person or group to aid in the conducting of any of the activities permitted hereunder.

(5) No signs, leaflets, placards or other material distributed shall contain any obscene, subversive, salacious, or libelous material.

(6) The executive director may suspend any permit already granted in the event that the conduct of the applicant or any of his agents or associates unreasonably and substantially interferes with either:

- (a) The safety of patrons attending the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center;
- (b) The orderly movement of vehicle and pedestrian traffic on the grounds of the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center; or
- (c) The normal functions of the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center;
- (d) Or in the event of the failure of the applicant or any of his agents or associates to comply with any of the provisions set forth in this section. The executive director shall suspend the permit by notice in writing to the applicant; and such notice shall state the grounds for the suspension.

(7) No person shall engage in the activities permitted hereunder without first securing a permit pursuant to the provisions of this section. (KFEC-9-1; 1 Ky.R. 1030; eff. 6-11-75; Am. 4 Ky.R. 229;
