

A RESOLUTION honoring 2015 Miss Kentucky Clark Janell Davis.

WHEREAS, Clark Davis was born on August 9, 1997, the cherished daughter of Ginger and Johnathan Davis; and

WHEREAS, Clark Davis attended the School for the Creative and Performing Arts in Lexington and graduated from Lafayette High School in 2014. She is currently enrolled at the University of Kentucky and is the spokesperson for the Kentucky Department of Agriculture's "Kentucky Proud" program, which encourages consumers to purchase goods produced in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, Clark Davis was crowned Miss Horse Capital of the World in January 2015, the first beauty pageant in which she had competed, and on July 4, 2015, she was crowned Miss Kentucky. As Miss Kentucky, Ms. Davis has tirelessly advocated for those suffering from dyslexia, creating the Best Me I Can Be Foundation to promote awareness for the disorder, and has continued to share her message of determination and perseverance with people around the Commonwealth and nation; and

WHEREAS, Clark Davis competed in the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City, New Jersey in September 2015. Although she did not win, she proudly represented her family, her community, and the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, this honorable body recognizes 2015 Miss Kentucky Clark Davis on this day, thanks her for her ongoing service, and wishes her best of luck as she continues to be a shining example for the young women of Kentucky;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

➔Section 1. The members of the Senate hereby honor Clark Janell Davis upon being named the 2015 Miss Kentucky, and applaud her for her extraordinary efforts as a representative of the Commonwealth.

➔Section 2. When the Senate adjourns this day, it does so in honor of Clark Janell

Davis.

➔Section 3. The Clerk of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Senator Gerald A. Neal for delivery.
