2           sex; or

3       (b) View members of the opposite sex in various states of undress; and

4       (5) Schools have a duty to respect and protect the privacy rights of students,
5           including the right not to be compelled to undress or be unclothed in the presence
6           of members of the opposite biological sex.

7       ➔SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 158 IS CREATED TO 8 READ AS FOLLOWS:

9       (1) Every school restroom, locker room, and shower room designated for student use
10           and accessible by multiple students at the same time shall be designated for and 11           used by male students only or female students only.

12       (2) In every school setting in which a student may be in a state of undress in the 13           presence of other students, school personnel shall provide separate, private areas
14           designated for use by students based on their biological sex.

15       (3) (a) A student who asserts to school officials that his or her gender is different 16           from his or her biological sex and whose parent or legal guardian provides
17           written consent to school officials shall be provided with the best available
18           accommodation, but that accommodation shall not include the use of 19           student restrooms, locker rooms, or shower rooms designated for use by 20           students of the opposite biological sex while students of the opposite
21           biological sex are present or could be present.

22       (b) Acceptable accommodations may include but are not limited to access to 23           single-stall restrooms, access to unisex bathrooms, or controlled use of 24           faculty bathrooms, locker rooms, or shower rooms.

25       (4) (a) While accessing a restroom, locker room, or shower room designated for 26           use by his or her biological sex, a student encountering a person of the school if school personnel:

1. Gave the person encountered permission to use facilities of the opposite biological sex; or

2. Failed to take reasonable steps to prohibit the person encountered from using facilities designated for use by the opposite biological sex.

(b) Any claims arising pursuant to this subsection shall be brought in the Circuit Court of the county in which the student resides or the school is located. All claims shall be initiated within two (2) years of the violation.

(c) The offending school shall be civilly liable to a student who is aggrieved under this subsection and prevails in a court of competent jurisdiction. The student shall be entitled to recover from the offending school any costs, expenses, and fees, including attorney's fees, associated with the claim.

(d) Nothing in this subsection shall limit other remedies at law or equity available to the aggrieved student.

➔Section 4. This Act shall be known as the Kentucky Student Privacy Act.

➔Section 5. Whereas situations currently exist in which the privacy rights of students are violated, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act takes effect upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming a law.
