

507.010 Definitions.

A person is guilty of criminal homicide when he causes the death of another human being under circumstances which constitute murder, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, or reckless homicide.

Effective: January 1, 1975

History: Created 1974 Ky. Acts ch. 406, sec. 60, effective January 1, 1975.