

21A.150 Powers of Kentucky Bar Association in disciplinary proceedings.

As deemed necessary in the exercise of its power to discipline attorneys, as granted by Section 116 of the Constitution, the Supreme Court may authorize the Kentucky Bar Association to conduct hearings, administer necessary oaths, take testimony under oath, compel the attendance of witnesses, and compel the production of records and other evidence.

History: Created 1976 Ky. Acts ch. 58, sec. 5.