

35.807 Complaints of wrongs.

Any member of the state military forces who believes himself or herself wronged by his or her commanding officer, and, upon due application to that commander, is refused redress, may complain to any superior commissioned officer who shall forward the complaint to the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the officer against whom it is made. The officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction shall examine into the complaint and take proper measures for redressing the wrong complained of, and shall, as soon as possible, send to the adjutant general a true statement of that complaint, with the proceedings thereon.
